News You Can Use

Free event on National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

Presented by Horizon Stage in partnership with Skydancer Indigenous Cultural Centre and Spruce Grove Public Library

Join us on National Day for Truth and Reconciliation for an opportunity to learn about Canada's history, engage in meaningful conversation, and hear from a local Elder. The evening will start with a musical performance, followed by the screening of a short documentary that explores the legacy of residential schools. Tea, bannock and fruit-infused water will be served afterwards. Tickets are free, but you must register and get a ticket to attend.

September 30, 2023 - 7:30 p.m.

Tickets: horizonstage.com

September 18-24 is Rail Safety Week

Did you know?

Spruce Grove has three active rail crossings south of highway 16A, at Century Road, Golden Spike Road, and Campsite Road. When crossing train tracks:

Stop - look both ways and listen for oncoming trains.

Stay alert - don't get distracted by phones, music, or conversations.

Follow all railway signs and signals.

Never drive through a crossing arm, park/stop on a train track, or try to beat a train.

Learn more at sprucegrove.org/TrafficSafety.
