News You Can Use

Call for artists to paint Jubilee Park mural

The City invites Indigenous artists or Indigenous-led artist teams to submit a proposal for a new piece of public art at Jubilee Park. This 48x8 foot mural will be installed near the REMAX Spray Park and should celebrate and recognize Indigenous culture, heritage, traditions, and ways of being. Proposals will be accepted until Sunday, Sept. 15, 2024. Learn more and download the application package at sprucegrove.org/PublicArt.

Alcohol consumption at Jubilee Park

As part of the updated Open Space Area bylaw and in conjunction with the Community Standards bylaw which took effect July 1, 2024, residents of legal drinking age can now consume alcohol in Jubilee Park. Alcohol consumption is allowed only in the designated picnic area at the north end of the park between 11 a.m. and 9 p.m. Learn more at sprucegrove.org/AlcoholInParks.

New speed limits for residential neighbourhoods coming August 31

Speed limits in residential neighbourhoods are changing from 50 km/h to 40 km/h starting August 31. This change is based on findings from the 2023 Spruce Grove Roadway Speed Limit study which found reducing speed limits would not only improve traffic and neighbourhood safety, but also support calmer, quieter neighbourhoods.
