UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL

MAYOR'S WELCOME

On behalf of the City of Spruce Grove and my colleagues on City Council, it is my distinct privilege to welcome you back for another exciting season at Horizon Stage. Last year, we celebrated an incredible 40 years of captivating, inspiring, and entertaining performances on this stage. Now, as we forge ahead into our fifth decade, we're not slowing down one bit.

The 2024/2025 season is packed full of shows that are sure to thrill guests of all ages and interests. Are you a fan of Taylor Swift? How about Gordon Lightfoot, Buddy Holly, or Creedence Clearwater Revival? If so, you're in luck. This season, Horizon Stage will host some of the leading tribute artists touring today – you'll think you're sitting front row at the Grammys! We've also got some great children's entertainers, a Celtic-inspired Candlelight Christmas, and stirring cultural performances from the shores of Newfoundland to southern Africa to the Canadian North.

More than simply a venue, Horizon Stage truly is the beating heart of our thriving arts and culture scene here in Spruce Grove. It's a place where we come together and connect over our shared love of theatre, music, comedy, cultural performances, and so much more.

City Council is incredibly proud to support this facility and we can't wait to see you at one (or more!) shows this season. Thank you for supporting Horizon Stage and its performers, technicians, and volunteers.

Now, on with the show!

MON

SEPT

30

6:30 PM

Join us for the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. This evening will feature truth-telling and sharing from Elders to help address the wrongs inflicted on Canada's First Peoples.

We will view "Holy Angels," a short documentary that highlights the resiliency and healing of Indigenous Peoples. The film shares the story of Lena Wandering Spirit of Fort Chipewyan, one of over 150,000 Indigenous children sent to residential schools. James Jenka, a residential school survivor who attended school with Lena, will share his experiences and insights into the residential school system.

Tea, bannock, and fruit-infused water will be served to close the event.

Emotional support will be available throughout the evening.

Audiences of all ages will get a fresh look at an age-old favourite this October when the Missoula Children's Theatre (MCT) and more than 50 local students present HERCULES.

Welcome to Ancient Greece, where the focus is on the big tournament! The Olympic Games are starting soon, and the Cyclops and Titans are both expecting to win big in the Games. But the tournament can't start without Hercules. Will the legendary strongman of the ancient world spark the flame and start the festivities on time, or will his legendary tardiness get in the way of the Games? Join us for a tale the scholars will talk about for ages as mythical creatures and Olympians alike share in a friendly competition. Along the way we may just learn that true strength lies not in our muscles but in our character.

THE RETURNS DEPARTMENT

MON

OCT

7

7 PM

Twin sisters welcome you to the Returns Department, where merchandise returned to the store by disgruntled customers is inspected. They discover all sorts of dysfunctional objects and manufacturing defects on their conveyor belt. For them, dealing with complaints is like opening a box of chocolates. Little by little, the temptation to play with the merchandise takes hold, but the objects themselves play some tricks of their own!

The Returns Department combines physical theatre, circus, robotics and puppetry. With humor inspired by Chaplin and comic strips, the show takes a playful look behind the scenes of a production line. Through defective products, the characters find a space of freedom to express their creativity, invent, and evolve.

7:30 PM

Confusionaires is a world-class rock & roll band that is constantly pushing the boundaries of what rockabilly and country music can be. Appealing to both purists and rebels, the sound of Confusionaires transcends generational boundaries, filling dance floors and turntables, and engaging fans from age 8 to 80. Since their inception in 2017, the trio has focused heavily on live performances throughout Western Canada, earning their place as festival darlings and a must-see live act with three album releases of their own. They have now developed a new show that showcases the musical achievements of musical icon Buddy Holly and the effect he's had on their original music over six decades later. Confusionaires offer a one-hour set entirely of Buddy Holly's music followed by a second set of lively original material all from that burgeoning rock and roll era.

7:30 PM

Katy Ellis, born in 1989, is the force behind the Taylor Swift Tribute Show and star of the Taylor Mania theatre tour. With striking resemblance and mirroring Taylor Swift's mannerisms and energy, Katy's tribute act stands out as unique. Her performance captures Taylor's essence, engaging the audience and inviting them to sing along to Taylor Swift's greatest hits.

Katy's attention to detail extends to her costumes, custom-made to match Taylor Swift's tour and music video outfits. With multiple costume changes, Katy transforms from the country-pop princess to the chic look of the "RED" album era, embodying Taylor's evolution as an artist.

Covering all eras of Taylor Swift's music, Katy showcases her vocal evolution and music genre transitions with precision. Backed by a team of talented musicians and dancers, and a collection of replica costumes from Taylor Swift's tours, this show is the ultimate tribute to Taylor Swift's iconic career. Having performed worldwide, Katy Ellis' Taylor Swift Tribute Show continues to captivate audiences with its success.

2 PM

Where Have All The Buffalo Gone? follows two souls through four Métis love stories in four distinct periods of Métis history. We bear witness to the emergence of the Métis nations across the plains, the robust colonization that arises from the fur trade, the disappearance of the buffalo, and the political uprising of the Métis Association of Alberta in the 1930s. We begin during creation among the stars and end in present day. Where Have All The Buffalo Gone? shares the Callihoo family's stories and the diverse stories of Métis peoples in Alberta, incorporating fiddle music, jigging and a life size buffalo puppet. Inspired by true historical events of the Métis people of Canada, Where Have All The Buffalo Gone? explores the love, the loss and the fight of Treaty 6's Métis peoples and the lessons and love stories of the buffalo.

New North Collective (NNC) is an ensemble of performing artists from Yukon and Northwest Territories including spoken word artist/bassist Pat Braden and composer/performer Carmen Braden from the NWT, singer/songwriter Diyet from the Kluane First Nation, guitarist/ songwriter Graeme Peters, trombonist Selena Savage, and percussionist Robert Van Lieshout from the Yukon, with multi-instrumentalist/producer Jan de Vroede from Greenland bringing a circumpolar element. Together, they explore their ideas of north - from the land to the people; from the traditional to the contemporary. Their shared music focuses on an in-depth look at being a northern person and a northern artist with the impact of change, geography and community on the music they create. The music is diverse and skillful, representative of a multitude of genres including jazz, folk, new music, spoken word, and rock. There is a common goal to discard the stereotypes of the region and the people who live in rural and remote northern communities. This music and media arts event, Outside, is current, traditional, and thought provoking for diverse audiences.

Black Umfolosi International is one of the African continent's greatest vocal groups, having performed all over the world, and in particular, having completed hundreds of shows across Canada in theatres and on festival stages. Their live performances blend a cappella singing with traditional dance and costume, featuring several languages from southern Africa. One of the highlights of a BUI performance is their rendition of gumboot dancing, a physically demanding form of dance performed in rubber boots that evolved in the mining camps of the country. For 42 years, BUI has been a leading proponent of their style of traditional music, singing on five continents.

The Arrogant Worms have spent over three decades making fun of a big, dumb world. Their songs have been played on the radio, the internet, and even in outer space (on the space shuttle Endeavour). The Worms began at Queen's University in 1991 when some members of the student cabaret group, The Queen's Players, started writing songs and sketches for the campus radio station, CFRC. Soon, the group became The Arrogant Worms (Chris Patterson, Mike McCormick, and Trevor Strong), who have since toured ceaselessly across Canada (and select other parts of the world), released 13 albums, and recorded with the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. Their song "The Last Saskatchewan Pirate" has been covered by bands such as Captain Tractor and The Longest Johns, and their "Happy Happy Birthday" song is a viral sensation with over one hundred million views of the various fan videos on YouTube. More than 30 years after they began, The Arrogant Worms continue to provide tuneful and silly escapism for everyone who needs it.

CCR is without a doubt one of the most important bands in history, whose sound is instantly recognizable. In the late 60's and early 70's they were huge ... even bigger than the Beatles and the Rolling Stones. In a three year span they dominated the music scene ... hit after hit after hit. They were more than music – they defined an era – they defined pop culture; Woodstock, Vietnam, hippies, protestors, war veterans. In “Creedence Clearwater Remembered: A True Rock And Roll Story”, that incredible legend is told through stories, music, and multimedia. Hit songs, egos, lawsuits, and brother against brother it's a fascinating and tragic tale brought to life on stage. With a band of award-winning musicians, the energy and vibe of CCR is recreated right before your eyes. You will hear CCR hits including “Fortunate Son”, “Proud Mary”, “Have You Ever Seen The Rain” and many, many more. Plus, you will be told the story of a band ... that in only a few short years ... changed music ... forever.

“Creedence Clearwater Remembered: A True Rock And Roll Story” ... the music... the story... the legend.
