INSTRUCTIONS FOR SCRUTINEERS

Upon attending a voting station, scrutineers are required to report to the presiding deputy returning officer or designate and present the Candidate's Scrutineer Appointment Form. The presiding deputy or designate will examine this document and the scrutineer will be required to sign and submit Form 16 – Statement of Scrutineer or Official Agent to the presiding deputy before commencing scrutineer duties at that station.

At any time during voting hours, a candidate may have only one representative (either the candidate, official agent or a scrutineer) present at each voting station.

The presiding deputy at the voting station will designate the place or places that the scrutineer may observe the election proceedings from.
